APPROPRIATE EXPERIENCE THAT MEETS THE REQUIREMENTS FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT CERTIFICATE THROUGH JUNE 30, 2014

For the Illinois Administrative certificate with the Superintendent endorsement, an educator must have at least 2 years full-time administrative or supervisory experience on one of the following administrative certificates:

- General Administrative
- General Supervisory
   The administrative certificate with the general supervisory endorsement is no longer issued, but there are educators who hold the certificate.*
- Chief School Business Official
- Director of Special Education

The required administrative experience may only be honored if the educator is employed in a position that requires one of the specific administrative certificates listed above.

Experience Scenarios

General Administrative

Appropriate Experience:
An educator holds the General Administrative endorsement and serves as a principal for 2 full years.

Inappropriate Experience:
An educator holds the General Administrative endorsement and serves as Coordinator. This experience cannot be honored because the General Administrative certificate is not required to hold such a position.

General Supervisory

Appropriate Experience:
An educator holds the General Supervisory endorsement and serves as a Curriculum Coordinator in the school district administrative office for 2 full years.

Inappropriate Experience:
An educator holds the General Supervisory endorsement and serves as a classroom teacher. This position does not require the General Supervisory endorsement, but does require the appropriate teaching certificate. This experience could not be honored for the Superintendent endorsement.

Chief School Business Official

Appropriate Experience:
An educator holds the Chief School Business Official endorsement and serves as the Chief School Business Official for the school district for 2 full years.

Inappropriate Experience:
An educator holds the Chief School Business Official endorsement and serves as the Business Manager. The position of Business Manager does not require certification.

Director of Special Education

Appropriate Experience:
An educator served for 2 full years as the Director of Special Education.

Inappropriate Experience:
An educator served for 2 full years as a School Psychologist. The experience as a school psychologist does not require an administrative certificate and the experience could not be honored towards the Superintendent endorsement.
