Evelyn T. Stone
College of Professional Studies

Since its founding in 1966, the Evelyn T. Stone University College has served as a local and national leader in adult education. Degrees offered through the college open the door to higher education for thousands of adults who wish to pursue degrees but who may also have other important responsibilities to family and to work. Each year the Evelyn T. Stone College of Professional Studies provides exciting educational opportunities through the development of new graduate and undergraduate programs and delivery systems to better serve students of all ages.

The Manfred Steinfeld School of Hospitality and Tourism Management

The Manfred Steinfeld School of Hospitality and Tourism Management prepares students for management and leadership careers in the hospitality tourism industry. The program prepares students in four areas of emphasis: lodging management, food and beverage management, culinary management and meeting, convention and exposition management. Program participants may gain experience through one or more of the professional partnerships with leading hotels, restaurants, meeting and convention facilities, associations, tourism offices, airline carriers and others.

The Colleges

COLLEGE OF LAKE COUNTY

The College of Lake County is a public community college, an integral part of the Illinois community college system. Located in Grayslake, Illinois, with extension sites in Waukegan, Great Lakes and Vernon Hills, the college serves Lake County and surrounding communities.

The College of Lake County transfer program provides the opportunity for area students to fulfill the first two years of study toward their bachelor's degrees. A strong academic program and the educational planning support of a knowledgeable counseling staff help ensure the transfer of credit to senior institutions such as Roosevelt University.
