

Bobby Biology

123 Microscope Lane, Chicago, IL 60624 • (345) 456-9870 • bbiology@mail.roosevelt.edu
LinkedIn URL

SUMMARY

Biology graduate knowledgeable in the use of lab equipment. Understand safety protocols; skilled in handling typical lab chemicals. Meticulous about details, well organized, and work well both in a team environment and independently.

EDUCATION

Roosevelt University, Chicago, IL

Bachelor of Science in Biology

Expected: May 2021

- Current GPA: 3.6/4.0
- Roosevelt Honors Program
- Relevant Courses: Organismic Biology, Ecology, Genetics and Chemistry

EXPERIENCE

Roosevelt University, Chicago, IL

Lab Assistant – Student Worker

January 2019-present

- Organize the equipment and lab samples for eight Biology lab classes per week
- Verify all chemicals and equipment are properly stored and follow all safety procedures
- Maintain the inventory levels of all supplies

Mariano's, Chicago, IL

Deli Clerk

May 2018-January 2019

- Filled customer orders and maintained a clean working environment; followed all sanitation and safety rules as designated by OSHA and the FDA
- Managed the deli department as a single employee and as a part of a team
- Trusted with the responsibility to close the deli department each evening

CAMPUS INVOLVEMENT/LEADERSHIP

Natural Science Club

2017-present

- Participated in the restoration of a nature preserve in the Chicago area
- Helped organize a networking event with Roosevelt alumni, inviting speakers and marketing the event to students and professors to encourage attendance

Vice President – Ecology Club

2018-2019

- Organized and promoted events related to sustainability, increasing awareness of current issues and legislation related to global warming

VOLUNTEER WORK

Habitat for Humanity

2017

- Helped repair homes for families in need

TECHNICAL SKILLS

- Proficient in Microsoft Office: Word, Excel, PowerPoint
- Ability to dissect plants and animal specimens
- Skilled in the use of a dissecting scope and light microscope