Sam Rasty, PharmD, MPH, BCPS
Chair and Associate Professor of Clinical and Administrative Sciences

Contact Information
1400 N. Roosevelt Blvd.
Schaumburg, IL 60173
Tel: 847-330-4546
Fax: 847-330-4525
srasty@roosevelt.edu

Educational Background
BS, The University of Alberta, Faculty of Pharmacy, Edmonton, Alberta, Canada
PharmD, Ferris State University, Big Rapids, Michigan
MPH, Epidemiology, University of Illinois at Chicago, Chicago, IL

Selected Publications
Rasty S, Taheri R. Pooled analysis of regression studies in patients with coronary artery disease treated with lipid lowering combinations containing nicotinic acid. Circ Cardiovasc Qual Outcomes Vol 2, No 3 May 2009 - e50.

Rasty S, Dubois M. Racial disparities in mortality of chronic diseases in Lake County, IL. Analysis of mortality data based on Ordinal and Nominal logistic regression. Circ Cardiovasc Qual Outcomes Vol 2, No 3 May 2009*- e 59.*

Rasty S, Amin NB, Borzak S, Mishima T, Sabbah HN, Tisdale JE. Influence of haloperidol on ventricular repolarization and monophasic action potential duration in anesthetized dogs. Chest 2004;125: 1821-1829.

Rasty S, Borzak S, Held AC, Kraft P, Tisdale JE. Bleeding associated with eptifibatide targeting higher risk patients with acute coronary syndromes: Incidence and multivariate risk factors. J Clin Pharmacology 2002; 42:1366-1373.

Tisdale JE, Rasty S, Padhi D, Sharma ND, Rosman H. Increased QT interval Dispersion associated with intravenous haloperidol in critically ill patients:Comparison with QTc interval prolongation for prediction of Torsades de Pointes. J Clin Pharmacology 2001; 41; 1310-1318.

Courses
PHAR 552: Public Health and Health Policy
PHAR 630: Integrated Sequences IV: Renal and Genitourinary Diseases
PHAR 631: Integrated Sequences V: Cardiovascular Diseases