SAP: There are two components to the Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy. The qualitative assesses a student's academic performance in the courses that have been completed. Students are required to maintain a 2.0 Roosevelt University grade point average at all times. The quantitative measure assesses a student's progress in pursuing his/her degree this measures the attempted hours versus the hours completed. All RU students must complete 67% of their attempted hours. I's, IP's, W's, L's, and F's do not count as credit.
