

STUDENTS-AT-LARGE AND VISITING STUDENTS – GENERAL INFORMATION

A student-at-large is someone taking classes who is not seeking a degree or certificate. A visiting student is someone enrolled in a class at Roosevelt to meet the requirements of a graduate degree at another institution. If you meet these criteria, complete this application and return it to the Office of Admission at the Schaumburg Campus. Applicants are required to submit a transcript showing undergraduate degree and/or a master degree, if applicable. If you are applying to take courses within the College of Education, proof of certification is required. Please Note: the Walter E. Heller College of Business Administration does not admit students-at-large.

Additional materials and/or separate applications may be required for specific programs. These documents can be faxed, mailed or emailed (gradadmission@roosevelt.edu). Contact the Office of Admission for details at 1-877-APPLY RU. All filed items become property of Roosevelt University and may be viewed later by applicant but not copied or retrieved. For a list of all graduate programs and certificates, please visit www.roosevelt.edu/academics. Please note: Financial Aid is not available for students-at-large or visiting students.

Do not use this form if you are not a U.S. citizen or legal permanent resident. Contact the Office of International Admission at (312) 341-3531.
