Household Size Verification – Dependent Student

As a part of the verification of your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), the Financial Aid Office requires documentation of your household.

Instructions:
Please complete the chart below including information about the people your custodial parent(s) will support between July 1, 2013 and June 30, 2014. Include:

- yourself
- your custodial parent(s) even if you do not live with them
- your custodial parents' dependent children (if they receive more than half of their support from your parents)

Include other people only if they:

- were living with and receiving more than half of their support from your custodial parent(s) at the time you completed your FAFSA, and
- will continue to live with your custodial parent(s) and receive this support between July 1, 2013 and June 30, 2014.

Include the college name for any family members attending half-time (6 credit hours) or more during 2013-2014, working towards an undergraduate or graduate degree. IMPORTANT NOTE: Parents should not be included in the number in college.

Your Reply: I Have_____ family members in my household and _____ of them are attending college at least half time.
