

MIDWESTERN PSYCHOLOGICAL ASSOCIATION

ANNUAL MEETING

APRIL 29 – MAY 1, 2010

PALMER HOUSE, CHICAGO

CALL FOR PAPERS OPEN UNTIL 11/3/09

INVITED ADDRESSES

Lisa Feldman Barrett (Boston College): On the nature of emotion: Connecting mind and brain

Judy DeLoache (University of Virginia): Children's symbolic functioning

Randall Engle (Georgia Tech): APS William James Lecture

Reed Hunt (University of Texas San Antonio): The concept of distinctive processing in memory

Janice Kelly (Purdue University): MPA Presidential Address

Patrick Tolan (Center for Positive Youth Development): Evidence based prevention of youth problems and more to be announced

STATISTICS WORKSHOPS

An Overview of Key Methodological Issues in Conducting Exploratory Factor Analysis

Lee Fabrigar (Queen's University) & Duane Wegener (Purdue University)

Modern Methods for the Analysis and Interpretation of Moderation and Mediation

Holmes Finch (Ball State University)

Web-based Questionnaires: How Design Affects Your Data

Randall Thomas (ICF International)

INVITED TALKS

Plus, Forty Invited Talks Spanning All Areas of Psychological Science, Including:

Cheryl King (University of Michigan): Childhood depression; Leslie Ashburn-Nardo (IUPUI): Teaching diversity; Kelly Mix (Michigan State): Cognitive development; Todd Schachtman (University of Missouri):

The neuroscience of flavor; Eli Finkel (Northwestern): Romantic relationships; Katherine Kinzler (University of Chicago): Social cognition; Linda Heath (Loyola): Social Psychology and Peace

www.midwesternpsych.org