

Chicago is a city of world-class status and unsurpassed beauty, drawing visitors from around the nation and the globe. Located on the shores of Lake Michigan in the heart of the Midwest, Chicago is home to world-championship sports teams, an internationally acclaimed symphony orchestra, renowned architecture and much more.

Visitors to Chicago experience a virtual explosion of cultural activity, civic pride and multicultural expression. From stunning architecture and world-famous museums to lakefront parks and vibrant ethnic neighborhoods, Chicago offers a range of attractions which keeps visitors coming back again and again.

The Chicago Cultural Center, an architectural showplace for the lively and visual arts, is a great place to begin a visit to Chicago. In addition to housing one of the city's official Visitor Information Centers, the Chicago Cultural Center offers more than 600 free art programs annually. It serves as a cultural crossroads where visitors can meet and learn about Chicago and its residents.

For more information: <http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Chicago>

Visit the city of Chicago home page: <http://www.cityofchicago.org/city/webportal/home.do>

Schaumburg is a village in Cook County and DuPage County, Illinois. As of the 2000 census, the village had a total population of 75,386. As of 2005, the population slightly dropped to 73,345.

The village has the headquarters of Motorola. One of only two IKEA stores in Illinois is in Schaumburg. It is near the Woodfield, which is the eighth largest mall in America in terms of shopping area. The village is also the home of the Schaumburg Flyers, a Northern League baseball team whose ballpark, Alexian Field, is located near the Elgin O'Hare Expressway. Schaumburg's transition from a rural community to that of a suburban metropolis began with Alfred Campanelli's first large scale suburban-style development in 1959 and Woodfield Mall's opening on September 9, 1971.

For more information: http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Schaumburg,_Illinois#Demographics

Visit the city of Schaumburg home page: <http://www.ci.schaumburg.il.us/>

Roosevelt University's Chicago and Schaumburg Campuses
<http://www.roosevelt.edu/campuses/default.asp>