

Application for Graduate Certificate

WOMEN'S AND GENDER STUDIES PROGRAM

Priority deadline is May 1. We will consider applications received after the deadline as space allows. Accepted applicants are required to begin in the fall semester.

Name _____ E-mail _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____ Telephone _____

List degree(s) already held and name of institution(s):

Undergraduate GPA _____ Graduate GPA (if applicable) _____
(Please note: we reserve the right to request and review transcript(s) from previous and current institutions)

Are you currently applying to or enrolled in a graduate program at Roosevelt? _____

If yes, which one? _____ Roosevelt student ID number _____

Please attach a document with the following information:

- 1. Courses taken in women's gender, and/or feminist studies, or courses taken in other disciplines with a WGS/feminist approach. Please use course titles or brief descriptions if titles are not reflective of content.
- 2. Related experience and employment history. Briefly describe internships, work/volunteer experience or other nonacademic experiences relative to preparation for graduate-level work in Women's and Gender Studies.
- 3. A 1 to 2 page, double-spaced statement of purpose. Provide an explanation of any background in women's and gender studies, an explanation of future goals, and a detailed description of what you expect to gain from this certificate program.

Name and contact information of one reference:

_____

Submit completed application to:

Ann Brigham, Director, Women's and Gender Studies Program
430 South Michigan Avenue
Chicago, IL 60605-1394
(312) 341-3725

Or, submit electronically as a Word attachment to: abrigham@roosevelt.edu

If you have any questions, please contact Professor Ann Brigham.