

WOMEN'S AND GENDER STUDIES CAPSTONE WGS 497 MASTER'S PROJECT APPROVAL FORM

WOMEN'S AND GENDER STUDIES PROGRAM, ROOSEVELT UNIVERSITY

Student Name _____ ID number _____

Student Address _____

Phone _____ E-mail _____

Tentative Project Title _____

Semester of registration _____

To be completed by student: Please attach a 3-5 page, double-spaced proposal that offers a concise but detailed description of the intended project, pose analytical questions that will be addressed, summarize relevant published scholarship on the topic, explain the methodology, and suggest the larger significance of the project to the field of women's and gender/feminist studies. It must also include an extensive bibliography (at least 1 page, single-spaced). Refer to the 497/490 guidelines for a fuller description.

To be completed by faculty chair, student, or both: Please identify and attach any specific terms for the project, including the option chosen (scholarly paper, curriculum development project, or community outreach project) and any field work, activism, specific kinds of research or product (e.g., oral histories, art exhibit, etc.). Please also include a tentative work plan with timeline.

I approve of the terms of this project as outlined herein:

Name of Faculty Chair _____ Name of Second Reader _____

Signature of Faculty Chair _____ Date _____

Signature of Second Reader _____ Date _____

Student Signature _____ Date _____

Student: Submit this form with proposal to: Prof. Ellen O'Brien, Women's and Gender Studies Program Director, School of Liberal Studies, Room 724, Roosevelt University, 430 S. Michigan Ave., Chicago, IL 60605.

Director:

Date completed form received _____ Date copy sent to student and chair _____