

March, 2008
ICL President's Letter

Dear ICLers:

We're almost there! Another round of great Study Groups – beginning on March 24th. A record number of people have signed up and it promises to be a wonderful opportunity to experience Life Long Learning.

We are experiencing full classrooms in a number of the Groups, so please don't come if you haven't registered.

Don't forget the lunch-time activities: "Tuesday Encore"; "Plato's Place"; and "The Lighter Side". And we have two trips coming up: April 11 to Fair Oaks Farms in Indiana and May 4 to the O'Malley Theater at downtown Roosevelt.

Be sure to check our website (www.roosevelt.edu/icl/default.htm) and the bulletin board near Door 3 for on-going updates of ICL activities.

There's a new ICL cheer that I understand will be performed at the June 18th Annual Meeting:

"I'm an ICLer; You're an ICLer; Become an ICLer, too; If you're not an ICLer, jump in a bucket of GOO!"

Please sign up for the "New Deal Service Day" which is scheduled for Saturday, April 12. Once again this year we will go to Friendship Village to share with their residents – forms are available from Mary.

The ICL Governing Board continues to work very hard at developing an updated strategic plan – we hope to finalize it in the next month and then begin implementation.

If you want to get more involved in ICL, you are more than welcome – just e-mail me at RobertGAllen@comcast.net or call me at 847-550-9091.

Bob Allen, ICL President