President's Letter

Dear ICLer's,

Wow!! What a great time! Last week's Summer Outing was a real success. It was a beautiful morning for the golfers and many of the foursomes really scored well. Lunch was great as Margo and Dorothy outdid themselves with barbeque ribs and chicken. Very tasty -- and there was plenty for seconds. Of course the brownies and cookies were a nicely decadent end to the feast. When I left for the day there were about 5-6 tables of card players still intently playing. Thanks to all the committee members for a job well done!

We have some especially important events coming up in the next few weeks that I would like to remind you of.

First, on August 28th we have our "Taste of ICL". Please alert your friends, neighbors and family members about this important event. The day begins at 8:30 A.M. when potential new members are invited, along with current members who bring a potential new member. The Study Group previews for potential and current members begin at 10:00 A.M., however you should get there by 9:45 A.M. to check out the schedule of previews and the rooms they are in.

Second, we have the Humanities Seminar coming up on September 9-10, 2008. An exciting array of speakers is lined up. It will be a very informative and entertaining two days. Please sign up ASAP.

Finally, please don't forget that on September 18th at 3:00 P.M. there will be a lecture by our great friend Professor Paul Green, at Friendship Village in Schaumburg. It would be GREAT to see as many ICLer's in attendance as possible. Study Group times that afternoon will be adjusted to run from 12:15 P.M. to 2:15 P.M.

By now, many of you should have received the Fall brochure in the mail. Also, the lineup is now available on line.

As I mentioned in the July President's Letter:

1. Register as soon as possible. Don't Wait. There is no doubt that this Fall we will have to limit the size of some of our Study Groups.
2. Only register for a class if you intend to be there. Don't keep someone else from attending.
3. If you register for a class, and then find out you cannot attend, let the coordinator know so she/he can alert someone on the waiting list.

Keep having a great summer, and keep looking forward to Fall.
