According to a new book by Deborah Nelson, Pulitzer Prize-winning investigations reporter and editor, large-scale cover-ups of U.S. war crimes are a part of our history. In The War Behind Me: Vietnam Veterans Confront the Truth about U.S. War Crimes (Basic Books, hardcover, pub. date: November 2008), Nelson reports on the largest compilation of records on Vietnam-era war crimes ever to surface. Plus, she talks with many of those who were involved, both accusers and accused, to uncover their stories.
