

Getting Paid to Cause Trouble: Careers in Social Justice

Sponsored by the Chicago Center for Working Class Studies and the Roosevelt University Mansfield Institute for Social Justice

Saturday, April 14, 2007

11:00am – 1:00pm

lunch included

Roosevelt University
CPA Building, 18 S. Michigan Ave.
(midway between Madison and Monroe)
1st Floor Gage Gallery

Come meet organizers from local community organizations and unions “walking the walk” and learn about careers for young folks in social change!

Free and open to the public. Lunch will be served.

Please r.s.v.p. to Carrie Breitbach at cbreitba@csu.edu

At 1:00 come along to the Rally for Fair Food, Real Rights, and Dignity
To support the Coalition of Immokalee Workers
At Federal Plaza

For more information about CCWCS: www.workingclassstudies.org