

75th Anniversary of the New Deal Film Festival
Film Row Cinema Theater
1104 S. Wabash Ave
Columbia College Chicago

http://www.colum.edu/Academics/Liberal_Education/Events.php

Wednesday, April 16th, 2008

9:00AM—MORNING PROGRAM: URBAN LIFE AND CULTURE (106 min.)

Welcome: Erin McCarthy, Ph.D., Department of Liberal Education, Columbia College Chicago

Introductory Remarks: Tom Nastick, Public Programs Producer, National Archives & Records Administration, Washington, DC

Comments: Robert Niemi, Ph.D., Associate Professor of English and Coordinator of the American Studies Program at St. Michael's College, Colchester, Vermont, and author of History in Media: Film and Television

Films:

The Road is Open Again

Hands

Dawn Strikes the Capitol Dome

We Work Again

The Fight for Life

Q&A: Robert Niemi

Lunch Break

1:00PM—AFTERNOON PROGRAM: THE PROJECTS (129 min.)

Introduction: Tom Nastick, Public Programs Producer, National Archives & Records Administration, Washington, DC

Comments: Bruce Kraig, Ph.D., Professor Emeritus, Roosevelt University; Nick McCormick, History Faculty, Columbia College Chicago

Films:

Work Pays America

The City

Valley of the Tennessee

The Columbia

Q&A: Bruce Kraig & Nick McCormick

Refreshments provided by Critical Encounters
Music of the 1930s by The Swing Doctors

4:30PM—EVENING PROGRAM: THE LAND AND ENVIRONMENT (145 min.)

Welcome: Erin McCarthy, Ph.D., Department of Liberal Education, Columbia College

Introduction: Tom Nastick, Public Programs Producer, National Archives & Records Administration, Washington, DC

Panel presentation: Robert Niemi, Ph.D., Associate Professor of English and Coordinator of the American Studies Program at St. Michael's College, Colchester, Vermont; Bruce Kraig, Ph.D., Professor Emeritus, Roosevelt University; Con Buckley, Ph.D., History Faculty, Columbia College Chicago; Don Smith, M.F.A., Department of Film & Video, Columbia College Chicago

Films:

The Plow that Broke the Plains

The River

Power and the Land

The Land

Panel Discussion & Audience Comments