Financial Statement for Degree-Seeking International Students

(F-1 and J-1 Visa Holders)

All degree-seeking students, who need a Form I-20 (for F-1) or DS-2019 (for J-1), must provide financial documentation to prove that they have sufficient funding to cover their expenses for the first academic year. The amount of funding (in U.S. dollars) must include tuition and fees, room and board, books and supplies, medical insurance, and other expenses. For current tuition, fees, and estimated costs of living, please go to our home page: <http://www.roosevelt.edu/isa/tuition.htm>.

Statement of Cost:

Students and their sponsors should expect a 5 to 10 percent increase in both tuition and cost of living for each year in attendance. Degree seeking international students must secure reliable and full funding for the duration of their studies.

Additional Financial Support for Accompanying Dependents:

Please add $6,000 for a spouse and $4,000 for each child to the minimum expenses per year. On a separate sheet of paper, list the names of your dependent(s), with family name in capital letters, date of birth, country of birth, country of citizenship, country of residency, and relationship to the student.

Payment Schedule:

Full payment of tuition and fees is due in the beginning of each term. Be sure to know your government's regulations regarding foreign exchange and transfer of funds to the U.S. Make arrangements before leaving your country to ensure complete funding for the beginning of each term and at regular intervals throughout the year. Detailed information about payments may be found on our home page.

Sponsors:

As an international student applicant, you can have more than one financial sponsor. You can be your own sponsor as well. However, your sponsor cannot be someone who is holding an F-1 or J-1 non-immigrant student status in the U.S. Each of your sponsors must complete and sign the Affidavit of Support. If you will be your own sponsor, you must complete the Affidavit of Support form.

Affidavit of Support:

On the reverse side of this statement is the Affidavit of Support. If you have more than one sponsor, please make a copy for each one of them. The Affidavit of Support must be accompanied by original bank letter(s) or account statement(s) issued by your bank or your sponsor(s)' bank, showing that sufficient funds are available to support your study and living expenses for at least the first academic year. Keep copies of all financial documentation for your visa application.

Student Certification:

I have read the above information regarding the funding of my study at Roosevelt University. I understand that I must secure funding for all expenses while attending the University.

Affidavit of Support for Degree-Seeking International Students

(F-1 and J-1 Visa Holders)

To Be Completed and Signed by the Sponsor:

I certify that I am willing and able to sponsor (student's name)_____

I understand that Roosevelt University estimates a student's expenses for one academic year based upon current tuition and fees, room and board in university housing and estimated personal expenses. Travel is not included in the estimates. Expenses are expected to increase 5-10 percent for each year of studies.

I understand that the period of study may extend over several years. I hereby promise to provide said student with the minimum amount required for the entire duration of study at Roosevelt University. I understand this document is legally binding, requiring me to provide the promised funding.

I am willing to deposit a bond, if necessary, to guarantee that this student will not become a public burden during his/her stay in the United States. Proof of financial resources in the form of a letter from my financial institution, showing at least the minimum amount required for one year of full-time study, is attached to this Affidavit of Support.
