Business Administration at Roosevelt University

The Walter E. Heller College of Business Administration (WEHCBA) offers the Bachelor of Science in Business Administration (B.S.B.A.) degree with majors in accounting, finance, human resource management, management, and marketing. The program includes a breadth of business knowledge as well as specialization in a functional area. Courses are taught by a combination of full-time and part-time faculty with broad academic and practical business experience. Classes are small, allowing extensive interaction with the professors.

All programs are available at both our Chicago and Schaumburg campuses and are available to both full-time and part-time students. After completing the B.S.B.A. degree, qualified students may earn the M.B.A. degree or a specialized graduate degree in Accounting, Human Resource Management, Information Systems or International Business at Roosevelt.

Walter E. Heller College of Business Administration Mission Statement

The mission of the Walter E. Heller College of Business Administration is to give its students a career-oriented business education that emphasizes personal and professional integrity and stresses the social responsibility of business. At the undergraduate level, the educational focus is on the student's acquisition of basic competencies in communication, computers, quantitative analysis, critical and creative thinking and a breadth of business knowledge.

The Colleges

COLLEGE OF DUPAGE

The College of DuPage is a public community college, an integral part of the Illinois community college system. Located in Glen Ellyn, Illinois (with centers in Addison, Naperville and Westmont), the college serves DuPage and parts of Cook and Will counties. The College of DuPage transfer program provides the opportunity for thousands of area students to fulfill the first two years of study toward their bachelor's degrees. A strong academic program and the Educational planning support of a knowledgeable counseling staff help ensure the transfer of credit to senior institutions such as Roosevelt University.

New students should call (630) 942-2482 for admission information.
