

Spring 2014 Events

Dean Bonnie Gunzenhauser cordially invites all members of the Roosevelt University community to attend the following events sponsored by the college during the spring, 2014 semester. Please contact Assistant Dean Juli Rowen with any questions at rowen@roosevelt.edu or at (312) 322-7142.

Race, Gender, and the Dating Game: How Stereotypes of Black and White Women Influence Relationship Judgments

April 16, 4:30-5:30 pm, WB Wabash Building, Room 1111

The Department of Psychology Sparling Lecture Series and the St. Clair Drake Center are sponsoring a lecture by Professor Jill Coleman on the topic of Race, Gender, and the Dating Game: How Stereotypes of Black and White Women Influence Relationship Judgment. Free and open to all members of the Roosevelt University community. For more information, contact Professor Jill Coleman at icoleman@roosevelt.edu

Montesquieu Forum Lecture – Professor Arlene Saxonhouse April 17, 4:30 pm, AUD Auditorium Building, Room 720

The Montesquieu Forum for the Study of Civic Life presents a lecture – Plato's 'Gorgias': Wanna be a Tyrant? - with Professor Arlene Saxonhouse, University of Michigan, Caroline Robbins Professor of Political Science and Women's Studies. Free and open to the public. For more information, contact Professor Stuart Warner at swarner@roosevelt.edu

Science and Mathematics Research Symposium April 18, 9 am - 2:30 pm, WB Wabash Building, 4th Floor

Celebrate the work of our science and mathematics students with a poster session, presentations, career panel, and more. For more information, contact Professor Wanwan Huang at whuang05@roosevelt.edu or Professor Cornelius Watson at cwatson@roosevelt.edu

Roosevelt Lectures in Mathematics

April 18: 2:30-4:45 pm and April 19: 9:30 am-4:15 pm, WB Wabash Building, Room 1017

The Department of Mathematics and Actuarial Science is hosting a lecture series in mathematics with special guest Professor Richard Askey, University of Wisconsin-Madison. Two lectures on Friday and four lectures on Saturday include topics such as elementary special functions and classical orthogonal polynomials. Free and open to all Roosevelt University students, but registration is required. For more information and to register, visit www.roosevelt.edu/MathLectures

First Annual Presentation of Student Media Research April 22, 4:30 pm, GB Gage Building, 5th Floor Lounge

The Department of Communication invites all members of the Roosevelt community to hear media studies students present their original scholarly research into mediated communication. Research areas include visual and aural product placement in television programs; the influence of video gaming on leadership skills; technology in the classroom; the consequences for viewers of "reality" television; and the growth of portrayals of paranormal phenomena on television. For more information, contact Professor Peter Fallon at pfallon@roosevelt.edu

Division of Professional Arts and Sciences Poster Session April 23, 4:30-6:00 pm, Schaumburg Campus, Room 600

The Division of Professional Arts and Sciences in Schaumburg is hosting a poster session in the corridor outside the division office, room 600. Arts and Sciences students will display and discuss posters from their coursework. All members of the Roosevelt community are invited to attend this end of semester gathering. Pizza will be served. For more information, contact Professor Steve Cohen at scohen@roosevelt.edu