

Texas Instruments T³ Regional Conference October 26-27, 2012

Walter Payton Preparatory High School Chicago, Illinois

 T^3 conference is open to all middle school through postsecondary educators, administrators, professors, and pre-service teachers interested in using educational technology to enhance teaching and learning in mathematics and science. The conference will be hosted by the Roosevelt University College of Education's Continuing Education Center, in partnership with Texas Instruments and Walter Payton College Preparatory High School.

Why Attend the T³ Regional Conference?

The T³ Regional Conference is designed to help you integrate Texas Instruments and other technologies into your classroom. They are great for both new and experienced users of technology. Sessions are full of ideas to make learning engaging to students and to deepen your understanding of concepts. Come join us in Chicago to take advantage of these opportunities:

- Attend beginner through advanced sessions
- Learn from experienced educators
- Choose from hands-on and demonstration sessions
- Network with other educators from your region
- Receive lots of great classroom activities and ideas
- Exchange ideas with others who are trying new techniques in their classrooms
- Acquire the latest news on Texas Instrument's educational products
- Return to your classroom with a renewed enthusiasm for teaching
