The Roosevelt Leadership Institute (R.L.I.) is a leadership development program for Roosevelt University students. The program will teach participants the tenants of the social change model of leadership, so that they can better understand and practice leadership at both Roosevelt University and in their local communities. The program consists of 8 sessions in the Spring semester, and will culminate with an opportunity to apply for advanced student leadership initiatives in the Fall 2017 semester. Please fill out and return completed applications to the Center for Student Involvement by Feb. 1, 2016.

Spring 2016 meetings will occur on the following Fridays in WB 317 from 1 to 3pm February 5, 12, 19, 26, March 4, 18, 25 and April 1.
