Question 1

Roosevelt University is dedicated to educating students to be leaders in their professional and civic lives. Describe one major co-curricular or community activity in which you have been active. Think about a time you were able to act as a leader in this activity, and describe how your leadership skills and qualities were important in your contributions to this activity.

Question 2

Of the books you have read, songs you have heard, or the films or plays you have seen over the past two years, what was the most meaningful to you? Why?

Question 3

Roosevelt University hopes that its graduates to become responsible citizens in a global society and in their local communities. In your opinion, what is the most pressing issue facing your own community? What kind of contribution would you like to make to resolve this issue?
