

Chicago School of Real Estate History

- 1999 – Conceived by Marshall Bennett and Gerald Fogelson
- 1999 – Fogelson Forum began
- 2002 – School started first fall semester
- 2004 – Institute created and staffed
- 2006 – Pasquinelli Family Chair and Endowment
- 2007 - $11.5 million Sustainable Funding Initiative Completed
- 2008 - Urban Retail Professional and Development & Research Center
- 2008 – Real Estate completes MSRE/MBARE Accreditation
- 2009 – Pasquinelli Family Heritage Room Dedication

The School vs. Institute

- Chicago School of Real Estate offers practical hands-on education through forums, mentorships, and graduate level courses aimed at developing real estate knowledge and leaders.
- Marshall Bennett Institute of Real Estate provides resources (both intellectual and financial) to support the School and to advance the real estate industry in the Chicago area

Student Enrollment & Employment

- 175 – Current real estate alumnae
- 70 – Currently enrolled students
- 30 – New real estate students entering in fall 2010
- Estimated 46% female and 50% minority
- 95% Current retention

Student Recruitment:

Coldwell Banker - Grubb & Ellis - Colliers B&K - Koenig & Strey – Jones Lang LaSalle - Marcus & Millichap - Urban Retail Properties - Walgreen's - BPG Properties – Pasquinelli Homes – Deloitte Tax LLP – IDOT – IHDA – Cook County – City of Chicago

Degree Programs and Course Information

The Chicago School of Real Estate currently offers three academic programs: Masters of Business Administration with a Concentration in Real Estate; Masters of Science in Real Estate; and a Certificate in Commercial Real Estate Development

The Chicago School of Real Estate currently offers a full range of real estate graduate courses plus special topics courses:

Real Estate Process	Real Estate Design & Feasibility
Real Estate Finance & Investment	Real Estate Law
Real Estate Marketing & Management	Urban Land Economics
Construction Project Management	Public & Private Development
Real Estate Development	Special Topics

Advisory Board

The school's Advisory Board consists of nearly 50 of the region's real estate leaders who take an active role as board members, mentors, guest speakers, and financial sponsors.

Urban Retail Properties Professional Development and Research Center

Located at 18 S. Michigan Avenue, on the 8th floor, the research center provides on-site resources for faculty, students and professionals associated with the program to undertake research, utilize on-line real estate data resources and use as a study facility.

The Center's real estate library is continuously increasing the number of available books (more than 1,000 currently). Recently, ULI/Chicago donated all the ULI publications.

Scholarships

The Marshall Bennett Institute has distributed more than $100,000 in highly competitive scholarships in each of the last three years. Six competitive scholarship programs are currently offered:

- Joseph and Joyce Freed Scholarship
- IJN Scholarship
- Louis S. Kahnweiler Annual Real Estate Scholarship
- Northern Builders, Inc. Scholarship for Future Leaders in Industrial Leadership
- Theresa and Hipolito Roldan Scholarship
- Goldie Wolfe Miller Women Leaders Initiative

Scholarship information is available at:

www.roosevelt.edu/realestate

Deadline: June 30, 2011

Scholarship Programs include:

- ~ $5,000 per year for two years
- ~ Mentoring and career counseling
- ~ Professional Development Courses
- ~ Job Networking Assistance