About Triton College

Founded in 1964, Triton College is one of the more than 48 community colleges in the state of Illinois. Today, Triton's district encompasses approximately 63 square miles, and the college serves approximately 331,000 people residing in 25 demographically and culturally diverse towns and villages. Triton continues to provide high quality, accessible and cost effective opportunities for the residents it serves.

Since its inception, Triton has been a key component to the economic and workforce development infrastructure serving one of the world's largest and most vital city, Chicago. Triton's associate degrees, transfer courses, certificates, adult and continuing education, and other programs have prepared a diverse student body to be highly functioning members of the neighboring communities and region's workforce.

Triton's 101-acre facility provides staff, students and the community a traditional college campus setting including architecturally-consistent prairie style brick classroom buildings, a learning resource center, science and computer labs, athletic fields and a tree-lined commons area.

About Roosevelt University

Roosevelt University is non-profit, private university named in honor of Franklin D. and Eleanor Roosevelt with campuses in downtown Chicago and suburban Schaumburg, Illinois, along with online programs. Roosevelt's award-winning faculty and dedicated staff take pride in pushing Roosevelt's diverse students to the limits of achievement, inspiring the transformation of lives and communities through the principles of social justice and inclusion. Academic programs are offered in the humanities, sciences, social sciences, business, education, music, theatre, pharmacy and professional studies. Roosevelt is one of the Midwest's most diverse private universities. The student/faculty ratio is 12:1, average high school GPA of new students is 3.1 and average ACT is 22.6. Roosevelt's new 32-story "vertical campus" downtown features student housing, science labs, classrooms, and a fitness center. The Schaumburg Campus, a state-of-the-art facility near Woodfield Mall, is a fully commuter campus with ample free parking.
