

NAME: _____

Date: _____

Sample Writing Test for the English Language Proficiency Test

INSTRUCTIONS:

You will have one hour and fifteen minutes to complete both parts of this test. Spend approximately 15 minutes on the first part and one hour on the second. Before you begin writing, read the instructions for each part. If you do not understand what to do, speak to the test proctor. No dictionaries are permitted during the test.

NAME: _____

Date: _____

Part One: Describe the picture on the previous page in a single, well-developed paragraph.

NAME: _____

Date: _____

Part Two: Write a well-developed essay that shows whether you agree or disagree with the following statement. Include an introduction, a thesis statement that gives your opinion, and a conclusion. Use specific reasons, examples, and explanations to support your opinion. Your essay must be written in an appropriate academic style.

Most universities have admissions requirements. This is wrong. All students should have an opportunity to study at any school they choose.

