ACADEMIC APPOINTMENTS AND TEACHING

Roosevelt University, Chicago College of Performing Arts 2009 – Present
Chicago, IL

Program Director, BFA Acting January 2025-Present

Continuing my service to CCPA I am now focused on BFA Acting, with goals of increasing our revised program's visibility and working with college leadership to improve recruitment strategy.

Responsibilities include:

- Assisting the chair in staffing acting courses
- Oversight of area content delivery and maintaining standards of excellence in instruction
- Mentoring of faculty through onboarding of university systems and processes
- Faculty observations and evaluations
- Program assessment and collection of artifacts for accreditation purposes
- Partnering with the chair and CCPA enrollment management on recruiting efforts and strategy for the BFA Acting program
- Overseeing independent studies, apprenticeships, internships, and professional performance opportunities for students
- Providing student advising and academic and artistic mentorship

Chair of the Theatre Conservatory/ July 2023-January 2025
Associate Professor of Acting (Tenure Track)

In the Spring of 2023 as I was serving as interim chair, I applied for and was offered the role of chair of the Theatre Conservatory, along with a move from my non-tenure track agreement to a tenure-track appointment. My time as chair coincided with our conservatory experiencing unprecedented growth, particularly in our BFA Musical Theatre program for AY 2024-25, resulting in our largest cohort of BFA Theatre students in CCPA's history. We also made further changes to our curricula in a subsequent revision of all three BFA programs for AY 2025-26.

Responsibilities and accomplishments included:

- Leading and managing the Conservatory's three BFA programs (Acting, Musical Theatre, and Musical Theatre Dance Concentration)
- Oversight of hiring, evaluation and mentoring of faculty and production staff
- Oversight of major curricular revisions of all BFA programs (Acting, Musical Theatre and Musical Theatre Dance), which were implemented in AY 2024-25 and revised in AY 2025-26
- Artistic programming of Theatre Conservatory production season
- Approval and oversight of student-directed projects
- Creation of the CCPA New Works Group, which invited BFA students, alumni and faculty to workshop original plays and musicals
- Implementation of initiatives focused on inclusion in programming and casting, as well as partnering with Theatrical Intimacy Education (TIE) on trauma-informed best practices for physical and emotional boundary-setting on stage
- Strategic planning within the theatre conservatory and the college
- Production budget preparation and management
- Student advising and mentorship
- Student recruitment and outreach, along with strategizing to optimize enrollment in all programs
- Other operational responsibilities

SERVICE TO THE PROFESSION

Board Member

Sarah Siddons Society

September 2022-Present

I served as CCPA's faculty representative on Sarah Siddons's Board of Directors and coordinated the selection of scholarship recipients for Roosevelt University/CCPA. I also served on a subcommittee in 2025 to select a fifth school from Illinois to receive scholarship monies, and we chose Northern Illinois University to join DePaul, Northwestern, Columbia College and CCPA/Roosevelt.

Associate Artistic Director

Misalliance Repertory Theatre (SAG-AFTRA, Equity affiliated) March 2019 – Present

Misalliance Repertory Theatre was formed after the closing of ShawChicago in 2019. The mission of our company is to perform the works of language-rich playwrights similar to George Bernard Shaw in humor and social commentary.

Artistic Director

January 2018 – December 2022

Oak Park Festival Theatre (Equity) - Oak Park IL

Responsibilities included:

- Working in partnership with the managing director in choosing artistic programming and overseeing all aspects of production and audience experience
- Creating and managing production budgets
- Hiring and supervising casting and production personnel
- Creating strategies for development and fundraising
- Enforcing identity-conscious casting and hiring policies and industry standards regarding stage intimacy
- Designing the professional workshop series in the summer internship programs, as well as creating and directing the intern showcases
- Overseeing community and education outreach and initiatives.

Oak Park Festival Theatre is one of the oldest outdoor theatres still in operation in the Midwest. It is an Equity theatre operating on Chicago Area Theatre (CAT) Tier 1 and 3 agreements with Actors' Equity Association. Its annual budget during my tenure was approximately $350K, with which we produced up to 4 productions a year with a part-time staff of five people. I was in leadership during the beginning of the COVID-19 pandemic, and we were one of the first Chicago area theatres to offer live performance again in the summer of 2021 due to our outdoor location. My team led the company through the loss of our office space due to fire in the fall of 2021 and succeeded in refinancing an $80K deficit and leaving the company with a positive cash flow of approximately $120K at the end of 2022. I directed some of the company's most critically acclaimed productions, including Elizabeth Rex, which starred Wendy Robie and garnered a Jeff Nomination for Best Principal Actress.

Consulting Artistic Director
ShawChicago (Equity) – Chicago, IL

June 2018 – March 2019

In its last year of operation, ShawChicago's artistic director Bob Scogin was hospitalized with complications following a lung cancer diagnosis. I had been an actor and director for the company since 2006 and one of its core company members, and I was asked by managing director Tony Courier and the board to oversee the 2018-2019 performance season. After Bob's death in November of 2018 and our final production of The Doctor's Dilemma in March of 2019, the board decided that the company would cease operation after 25 years.

Associate Artistic Director/Director and Adapter Shakespeare Project of Chicago (Equity) - Chicago, IL

January 2010 – March 2018

Shakespeare Project of Chicago is an Equity theatre specializing in theatrical staged readings of Shakespeare and his contemporaries. In addition to assisting our artistic director in choosing programming and in managing, casting and development, I adapted and directed several full-length Shakespeare plays for staged reading performances at Chicago area libraries. I also designed and performed abridged productions of Shakespeare plays and customized workshops for middle schools, high schools and community colleges.
