About Roosevelt University

Roosevelt University is non-profit, private university named in honor of Franklin D. and Eleanor Roosevelt with campuses in downtown Chicago and suburban Schaumburg, Illinois, along with online programs. Roosevelt's award-winning faculty and dedicated staff take pride in pushing Roosevelt's diverse students to the limits of achievement, inspiring the transformation of lives and communities through the principles of social justice and inclusion. Academic programs are offered in the humanities, sciences, social sciences, business, education, music, theatre, pharmacy and professional studies. Roosevelt is one of the Midwest's most diverse private universities. The student/faculty ratio is 12:1, average high school GPA of new students is 3.1 and average ACT is 22.6. Roosevelt's new 32-story "vertical campus" downtown features student housing, science labs, classrooms, and a fitness center. The Schaumburg Campus, a state-of-the-art facility near Woodfield Mall, is a fully commuter campus with ample free parking.
