Bobby Biology

123 Microscope Lane, Chicago, IL 60624
(345) 456-9870 - bbiology@mail.roosevelt.edu

An entry level position in a testing or medical lab. Knowledgeable in the use of lab equipment, understand safety protocols and skilled in handling typical lab chemicals.

EDUCATION

Roosevelt University, Chicago, IL
Bachelor of Science in Biology GPA: 3.6/4.0 May 2017
Roosevelt Honors Program
Relevant Courses: Organismic Biology, Ecology, Genetics and Chemistry

EXPERIENCE

Roosevelt University – Chicago, IL
Lab Assistant – Student Worker Jan. 2016 –present

- Organize the equipment and lab samples for eight Biology labs classes per week
- Verify all chemicals and equipment are properly stored and follow all safety procedures
- Maintain the inventory levels of all supplies

Mariano's – Chicago, IL
Deli Clerk May 2015 – Jan. 2016

- Filled customer orders and maintained a clean working environment; followed all sanitation and safety rules as designated by OSHA and the FDA
- Managed the deli department as a single employee and as a part of a team
- Trusted with the responsibility to close the deli department each evening

CAMPUS INVOLVEMENT/ LEADERSHIP

Vice-President - Ecology Club – 2015-2016
Organized and promoted events related to sustainability. Increased awareness of current issues and legislation related to global warming.
Natural Science Club - 2014 -present
Participated in the restoration of a nature preserve in the Chicago area. Helped organize a networking event with Roosevelt alumni; invited speakers and marketed the event to students and professors. Event was successful, with an attendance of 25.

VOLUNTEER

Habitat for Humanity - Summer 2014. Helped repair homes for families in need.

SKILLS

Proficient in Microsoft Office: Word, Excel, PowerPoint
Understanding of laboratory safety and warning signs
Skills and ability to dissect plants and animals
Skilled in the use of a dissecting scope and light microscope