Your 2016–2017 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) has been selected for verification review. As a part of the verification process, the Office of Financial Aid must verify your completion of high school or the equivalent.

SECTION 1: IDENTIFICATION

Student Name: __________________________ Roosevelt ID #: ____________________

SECTION 2: STUDENT CERTIFICATION

Check one box below to indicate the document attached.

☐ Copy of high school diploma or final high school transcript that includes your graduation date.

☐ Copy of one of the recognized equivalents of a high school diploma:
  – General Education Development (GED) Certificate.
  – Certificate recognized by the state as an equivalent to a high school diploma.
  – Academic transcript of a successfully completed 60 college level credit hours or a two-year program (e.g. Associate degree) fully acceptable toward a bachelor’s degree.
  – If you do not have documentation meeting any of the above requirements, and you excelled academically in high school, you may submit documentation from your high school that confirms your academic ability.

☐ Copy of homeschool documentation:
  – State-issued homeschool certification credential
  – If State law does not require a homeschooled student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a transcript or the equivalent, signed by the student’s parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses the student completed and documents the successful completion of a secondary school education in a homeschool setting.
